

START SONGWRITING IN STYLE. 17-19th June 2011

Spend a weekend in the beautiful setting of Harefield Hall, North Yorkshire honing your songwriting skills with two consummate and professional songwriters.

Rev Hammer and Dan Donnelly have both been writing songs professionally for over twenty years...songs that are loved by many.

They have distilled their art into a series of thought provoking and inspiring workshops designed to bring out the best in songwriters of all ages and abilities.

Rev and Dan have successfully delivered these workshops in schools, colleges, prisons and many other settings across Britain...but perhaps none as special as this.

Harefield Hall is set amongst 28 Acres of beautiful woodland in Nidderdale, near Pateley Bridge. Providing four star accommodation, lounge bar with real log fire, function room and health suite with pool, sauna and Jacuzzi.

The price includes 2 nights board and breakfast, access to all workshops and events plus one on one mentoring and Saturday Night Entertainment from Rev and Dan.

A brand new Yamaha Guitar will be awarded to the songwriter whose song is voted the best at the end of the weekend.

Your Weekend will include: Evening Open Mic Sessions hosted by Rev and Dan, Lyric Writing Workshops, Chord and Melody Workshops, Performances by Rev and Dan, Music Business Talk on 'How to make your songs make you money', Q and A Sessions and A Yamaha Guitar for the most voted for song
